NORMAL NOTES

The past week was the beginning of the second half of the first semester. The reports were given out on Tuesday and although there were some that "funkt," as a rule the grades were satisfactory. The grades of Miss Amy Hutchins, however, took the prize, all of her grades being above 95 per cent.

Owing to the break of last week in school work, the literary program was not quite as successful as the one heretofore. But the next few weeks there will be "something doing." A number of members of the society have filed complaints against one of the officers, and probably the next few meetings will be devoted to the trial and perhaps the impeachment of said officer. If the trial is brought before the society it promises to be quite interesting and instructive to the pupils.

The boys are trying their best at basketball and although the team has not been picked as yet, there is so much material that when it is decided who shall play, the Normal will have the best team in the territory, and perhaps in the Southwest.

Good Cough Medicine for Children and Grown Folks, Too.

"We could hardly do without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Mrs. Flora Despain of Bloyd, Ky. "I found it to be so good for the croup and have used it for years. I can heartily recommend it for coughs, colds and croup in children and grown folks, too." The above shows the implicit confidence that many mothers place in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a confidence based on many years' experience in the use of it. No one need hesitate to use this remedy for it contains no chloroform, opium or other narcotics and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all dealers.

Pretty Church Wedding

Miss Lucia Ortega and Juan Lorenzo Trujillo were the principals in a pretty wedding which took place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in the East side Catholic church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Babeyrolle parish priest, the impressive Catholic ring ceremony being used. Miss Ortega is the charming and accomplished daughter of Juan Ortega. She is one of Las Vegas' fairest native girls and is possessed of those sterling qualities which go to make a good partner for life's battles. Miss Ortega has won for herself many friends during her residence in Las Vegas which has been since her girlhood days and is exceedingly popular among the younger Spanish set. Mr. Trujillo is the son of Ambrosio Trujillo a wealthy ranchman of Gascon, N. M. The groom is well known in Las Vegas both in social and commercial circles, having at one time been at the head of the Charles Ifeld large wholesale house in Santa Rosa and later holding a responsible position in Taos at which place he has resided until returning recently to this city to claim his young bride. Mr. Trujillo and bride are spending their honeymoon in El Paso, which will extend over a period of a few weeks after which time they will return to Las Vegas where they intend to make their future home.

Wedding Bells at Rociada

A very pretty home wedding was witnessed this week at Rociada by a large number of the friends of the bride and groom when John M. Kelley led to the altar the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perea, Miss Dolores. This popular lady has a wide and admiring circle of friends and acquaintances in Rociada and the neighboring country who all wish her the happiness she deserves and which is sure to be her portion with the man of her choice. She is reported to be quite wealthy in her own right. Mr. Kelley is at present the foreman of the New Hope and Good Hope mines and has long been esteemed by the mining men of the Rociada district as one of the most upright and practical mining men in New Mexico. Mr. Kelley is one of the leading citizens of the district. Their many friends extend congratulations and wish them a happy voyage on the sea of matrimony.

Autumnal Party at Watrous

The autumnal ball and party given at Watrous on the evening of November 19th, by Messrs. Stewart Tipton, Roy Lyman and Lee Devine, proved a most enjoyable affair and shows what "Little Watrous Can Do." At 8:30 p. m., a crowd of fifty people gathered at the home of Mrs. S. E. Devine to await the arrival of an immense hay rack drawn by six fiery steeds which was to convey the happy gathering to the ancient mansion of Samuel Watrous four miles from town. The gallant young men of the party were most attentive to their young lady partners and all were soon comfortably located. The ride was a most enjoyable one. Mr. Leo Woodbury entertaining the crowd by his ever original wit and humor. At the arch gate of the Valmore ranch the party from Watrous were joined by the Valmore party and were ushered by the hosts into a veritable chrysanthemum bower. This covered the decorations of the reception room. After the guests had exchanged greetings, they were taken into the ball room which was most beautifully decorated in long, trailing wreaths of autumn leaves draped over windows and doors. The ball was opened by a grand march led by the charming chaperons, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Peterson. Following the grand march was a waltz which was a feature of the evening owing to the pleasing music furnished by Mrs. J. E. Tipton, Miss Mary Tipton and Mr. L. Devine. Following the waltz was a prize two-step the honors of this enjoyable incident being carried off by Miss Bessie Lodge and Mr. Ray Lyman. Those officiating as judges were Miss Thelma Tipton, Messrs. L. Woodbury, F. Brown and A. Peterson. Those who did not care to dance spent the evening playing cards. At 11:30 supper was served in the banquet hall which was attractively decorated with autumn leaves and apples. Mrs. J. E. Tipton, hostess at the supper table, was assisted in serving by Misses Tipton, Lodge, Devine and Manby. Mr. Thull concluded the banquet by offering a very appropriate toast. Goodnight being exchanged with the hosts who had so cleverly filled their role and proved themselves such royal entertainers, the merry crowd dispersed.

Rivera-Gallegos Nuptials

In the presence of a large number of friends, Miss Clarita Rivera and Estevan Gallegos were united in marriage yesterday at 9 o'clock at the Church of Our Lady of Sorrows. The impressive ring ceremony of the Catholic church was used, Rev. Father Rivera, uncle of the bride, pronouncing the ceremony which made the happy young couple man and wife. The altar of the church inside of which the ceremony took place was most beautifully decorated and formed an attractive contrast against the quaint old walls of the long standing church.

Miss Rivera is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Veneranda Rivera. She is possessed of that charming beauty characteristic of the young belles of native birth and looked lovely in her wedding gown of white silk with a long trailing white veil. She carried a large bouquet of white carnations. Miss Rivera is well and popularly known in Las Vegas where she has resided since her birth and has made friends like rays of sunshine among those who have known her. For many years she was saleslady at the dry goods emporium of Walter Bierman, on the West side.

Of the groom Estevan Gallegos it can be said that he is well known in Las Vegas, having made his home in

Cough Weather

When the weather is cold and stormy, most of us are more or less subject to the unpleasant experience of colds, with the consequent wearing strain of the cough and the danger of more serious trouble apt to follow neglect.

People who practice deep breathing and who use ordinary care to avoid sudden changes of temperature, dampness and exposure, are less liable to take cold than those of less methodical habits. At the first sign of a cold steps should be taken to check it. A simple, inexpensive and effective remedy is made by mixing two ounces of Glycerine, a half-ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure and eight ounces of pure Whisky. It is claimed by the Leach Chemical Co., of Cincinnati, who prepare the genuine Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure for dispensing through druggists, that a teaspoonful of this mixture four times a day will break up a cold in twenty-four hours and cure any cough that is curable.

this city for many years, where he was educated in the public schools. He is a son of Isidor Gallegos and at the present time is residing at Conant, N. M., where he has a large general merchandise store. Mr. Gallegos is a hard working, energetic young man and in making those of friends while engaged in business at Conant has built up a business that promises him a bright future with a wide field among the business men if that part of the territory. Mr. Gallegos is also U. S. court commissioner in the Sixth judicial district.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallegos were attended at the altar by Mr. and Mrs. Manuel B. Baca of Santa Rosa, N. M., who acted as sponsors. Others in the bridal party were Misses Rosa Lopez, Eloisa Rivera and Arnora Gallegos and the Messrs. Edmundo Gallegos, Manuel Martinez and Benjamin Lopez.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallegos were the recipients of many valuable and handsome gifts, showing the high esteem in which they are held by those who know them. A wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother followed the ceremony at which covers for fifty were spread. There was a reception and dance tendered the bride and groom last evening at Mackel's opera house. After spending a few days in the city Mr. Gallegos and bride will depart for Conant, N. M., where they will make their future home.

Among the relatives from out of town places were N. V. Gallegos, register of the U. S. land office at Tucumcari, N. M., and J. N. Gallegos, former county clerk of Quay county, and wife, of Conant, N. M.; Donaciano Garcia, Los Alamos, N. M.; Benito Baca, Rivera, N. M.; and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel B. Baca, of Santa Rosa, N. M.

Group Cured and a Child's Life Saved

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the thousands who have been benefited by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My child, Andrew, when only three years old, was taken with a severe attack of croup, and thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy his life was saved and today he is a robust and healthy boy," says Mrs. A. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. This remedy has been in use for many years. Thousands of mothers keep it at hand, and it has never been known to fail. For sale by all dealers.

Many wives are responsible in a great degree for the successes of their husbands but they seldom get any credit for them, especially from the husbands.
